

Trinity School

Emotional and Sexual Development Procedures

System for supporting pupils in crisis related to puberty

Please read in conjunction with Emotional and Sexual Development (ESD) Policy which states that one of the main aims in supporting ESD is to safeguard and oversee personalised approaches for those young people whose challenges in puberty are significant and for whom other holistic strategies have not yet worked.

Trinity School
Emotional and Sexual Development Procedures
System for supporting pupils in crisis related to puberty

Current Emotional and Sexual Development Team:

Deputy Headteacher- Curriculum-Sue Ball

Educational Psychologist-Ken Greaves

SALT Manager-Erna O' Neil

Practitioners-Ken Payne (main school)

-Rolland Dankwa (Living and Learning Centre -LLC)

School Nurse-Sharon Jakobek (as necessary)

School Governor- to be confirmed