

The Heathway Centre

Reducing Violent Behaviour in Children with Additional Needs Workshop for parents/carers with children and young people with a disability/additional need.

You must live in LBB

- Exploring behaviour as a form of communication
- Discussion on how to identify unmet needs and share lots of strategies and approaches
- By the end of the workshop, participants will have a much greater understanding of the underlying causes of violent behaviour, and what they can do to help a child start to turn their behaviour around
- Lunch and refreshments included
- Delivered by Yvonne Newbold
